

2026 Annual Conference & Meeting

A statewide conversation on housing stability, innovation, and impact

Thin Margins. Critical Impact.

Housing Delaware's Most Vulnerable

Join the Delaware Chapter of the National Association of Housing and Redevelopment Officials (DE-NAHRO) for a dynamic, one-day conference focused on innovative housing solutions and services for Delaware's most vulnerable residents.

The conference brings together housing authorities, nonprofit and for-profit partners, policymakers, and service providers to discuss new initiatives, partnerships, and programs supporting housing stability across Delaware.

Why Attend:

Gain insights from state and local leaders, explore innovative housing models, and connect with professionals addressing Delaware's most pressing housing challenges.
